19TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

AUGUST 13, 2017

SOLEMNITY OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRGIN MARY

MONDAY, AUGUST 14TH
VIGIL MASS: 7:00 PM

TUESDAY, AUGUST 15TH
HOLY DAY MASSES: 8:15 AM & 7:00 PM

Solemnity of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary

On Tuesday, August 15, we will celebrate the Feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. This is a Holy Day of obligation. Masses will be celebrated:

Monday, August 14th

Vigil Mass: 7:00 PM

Tuesday, August 15th

Holy Day Masses: 8:15 AM & 7:00 PM

There is a traditional blessing that follows this feast that connects our world of nature and abundance to the spirit of Divine fulfillment. Right now, across the United States and Europe, the harvest is being realized. Fruits and grains are slowly being gathered to feed and heal the world. We remember, as St. Paul writes in his letter to the Corinthians, that Jesus is the first fruit of the resurrection, the first to be raised.

On the Feast of The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary, we remember her being “harvested” into heaven. Because this time of year reflects the abundance of God while the fruits of the earth are slowly being harvested, we invite you to bring bright flowers and fragrant herbs from your garden to be blessed at the Mass you attend. By doing so, we hold onto the promise of the abundance of God’s life and the gift of resurrection and the realization that we will be gathered into God’s kingdom. You may take your bouquets home or leave them in church.

Through Our Alms We Touch the World

Fisher House at Edward Hines Jr. VA Hospital

The Fisher House at Edward Hines Jr. VA Hospital, Hines IL is a comfortable home where military and veterans' families can stay at no cost while their loved ones are receiving treatment at the VA medical center. The Fisher House offers 21 suites, private bedrooms, baths, a shared common kitchen, laundry facilities, a warm dining room and inviting living room. The house offers all the comforts of home while promoting a warm and supportive environment for families living through a stressful and challenging time in their lives. On-going financial support by the Fisher House Foundation ensures there is never a lodging fee and donated frequent flyer miles & hotel reward points bring family members to the bedside of their injured service members.

The Fisher House Foundation also manages a grant program that supports other military charities and scholarship funds for military children, spouses and children of fallen and disabled veterans.

This week's Alms will go to support the Fisher House at Edward Hines Jr. VA Hospital and the various programs facilitated through The Fisher House Foundation. Please use the green Alms envelopes located on the tables at the back of the church to contribute.

The St. Raymond's Alms Committee searches out organizations which reflect the needs of the "least of our brothers." All are invited to join our committee which identifies and presents organizations for consideration in weekly alms. If interested in being part of the Alms Committee, please contact Giuseppe Freni at Giuseppe.S.Freni@pepsico.com.

SAYING GOOD-BYE IS AS IMPORTANT AS SAYING HELLO!

As a parish, we have the opportunity to say hello and welcome to our new parishioners, however, we rarely have the opportunity to say thank you and farewell to those who leave our parish. Saying Good-Bye is difficult but it is so important.

As a member of the Faith Community of St Raymond, no parishioner should one day, simply just disappear. If you are retiring and moving to a warmer climate, or perhaps downsizing and relocating out-of-town - for whatever reason, please do not just move away and not let us know.

We know that St Raymond is not always on the "to-do" list as one packs and prepares for a move. But we request that you do add the Parish Ministry Center to the list so we might properly say God bless you, thank you and good-bye!

RAYVINIA 2017

RAYVINIA 2017

Thank you to everyone who joined us in the St. Raymond courtyard for RayVinia. It was a beautiful evening to be outside and enjoy the music, delicious food, and the company of friends. Johnny Burnett and the Robin Watson Band provided a wonderful show!

Thank you to all of the volunteers who helped make the night a success. All proceeds will benefit the Catholic Charities Refugee Resettlement Program.

Funeral Lunch Ministry

For many years, we have been able to serve those grieving the loss of a loved one by providing a simple funeral lunch for those wishing to have one here at St. Raymond. We are very grateful to Marge and Dennis Bogacki for coordinating this service over the past few years and to Darlene Stewart who served in this capacity for many years prior to that. Of course, they couldn't do this alone, so we are also thankful for the many other volunteers who brought food, helped to serve, etc. and were the compassionate presence of St. Raymond to those suffering loss.

Due to changing circumstances, our Funeral Lunch Ministry is now on hiatus.

To continue this ministry, we are in need of a team of 4 to 5 people (women and men) who are available during the day and who would be willing to coordinate and do the tasks needed to keep our Funeral Lunch Ministry viable at St. Raymond.

Please contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143 or Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org for further information. Thank you!

Are You Being Called to the Ministry of Care?

We are blessed and grateful to our parishioners who serve as Ministers of Care to bring the Eucharist to the homebound, to residents of The Moorings on Thursday mornings and to Church Creek on Saturday mornings, and who visit our parishioners receiving care at Northwest Community Hospital.

Are you being called to serve in this wonderful ministry? Would you like to bring the caring and compassionate presence of St. Raymond to our ill brothers and sisters?

Training for new Ministers of Care will be held on Saturday, September 9th and Saturday, September 16th at Holy Family Church in Inverness. Anyone wishing to discuss the possibility of becoming a Minister of Care is asked to contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143 or Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org. As our Ministers of Care have mentioned many times, they have grown and received so much from this unseen but very important ministry. You will not regret it!

WOMEN'S SPIRITUALITY CIRCLES

Women's Spirituality Circles are small groups of 8-18 women who gather once a month to nourish, reflect upon and share their own spiritual lives. A resource book is used, which enables the women to come to a deeper understanding of themselves and their own unique spirituality. Through reading, discussion and prayerful reflection, the women experience a deeper prayer life and the invitation to share their gifts in service to God's people. They gather strength, insight and a sense of gratitude from one another. Each group has a facilitator. For further information please contact Kathy Hemler at either 847-427-1472 or chuck.kathy.hemler@comcast.net.

MAC (MEN OF ACTION AND CONTEMPLATION)

MAC is a group of five or six men who commit themselves to meeting twice a month for one hour to dialogue, support and encourage each other to live the Gospel message more fully in their daily lives. A resource book, based on the daily scripture readings is used. Each daily reflection contains a part of a scripture reading, a contemporary story, a question for one's own life application and a concluding thought for the day. Each man is asked to find ten minutes each day to reflect and pray over the daily reflection. The men involved find that this experience helps them in their daily lives. For more information please contact Johnny Burnett at yibidee63@gmail.com or 847-707-3360.

Religious Education PROGRAM

Trust What You Know

Tips for New Catechists

When first approached with the invitation to become a catechist, many people respond with a variation on the same theme: "But I've never done that! I don't know how to teach, and I don't know enough about my religion to teach it." Veteran catechists will tell you that although formal training is undoubtedly helpful, some of the most important lessons a catechist needs to know come from personal experience.

Children look to adults for guidance and structure.

Establish your role early as the resident adult in matters of discipline and organization. While it's tempting to want to be their friend, the children need you to be their guide.

Know the content by heart.

You don't have to be a trained theologian to be a catechist, but it is necessary for you to be familiar with the content you will cover and to take it to heart prior to presenting it. It's best if you can discuss the content with another catechist or supportive believer, sharing your understanding and your faith before presenting the content to the children.

Actions speak louder than words.

The way you treat the children will make a greater impression on them than any session you lead. Respect, kindness, fairness, compassion, and forgiveness will reinforce the Christian message. Harshness and rigidity will undercut the gospel you present.

We learn in a variety of ways.

Catechesis includes a wide variety of information that children should become familiar with. As Catholic Christians, we learn about our faith in more ways than one—through story, symbol, ritual, song, prayer, and service. Be sure to include a variety of approaches when presenting the content.

Exercise children's religious imagination.

Children are naturally religious in their inclinations. They seldom have any trouble with hoping, dreaming, and imagining every possibility under heaven. Allow some elbow room for creative thinking as you draw them toward the ideas you want to present.

Don't just tell them—show them.

A valuable aspect of religious formation that the Church has reclaimed in the last generation or so is the irreplaceable dimension of faith sharing. Catechists have the opportunity not only of presenting the fundamentals of the faith but also of sharing the importance of it in their own lives. "Faith is not taught, but caught," as catechists say. Reflect on whose faith your own spiritual life is modeled after.

Make their time a positive experience.

You stand before these children as a representative of the Church. Their impressions of their time spent with you will become part of their understanding of what the Church is all about. If they remember this time as enlivening, exciting, and purposeful, they will associate that experience with what a life of faith entails. So get in touch with the excitement of your own faith and let that excitement shine forth in every session you lead.

Religious Education PROGRAM

Will you answer God's call to teach the children?

Have you wondered if you would be a good teacher? (Would you like to co-teach with someone to share and talk about the best way to teach a lesson?) Do you smile when you see a child's success? Would you like to teach the children more about God — using excellent materials? Would you like to learn more?

Top Reasons to Become a Catechist

1. You will grow in your own faith, learn the teachings of the Church, and deepen your relationship with Jesus
2. Your baptism calls you to share in Jesus' ministry
3. Children, teens, and adults in today's world, more than ever, need to hear the Good News of Jesus
4. Children, teens, and adults in today's world, more than ever, need to encounter good role models of faith
5. You have much to share with those you'll teach and you'll have opportunities to share faith with other catechists
6. Today's catechetical textbooks/resources offer outstanding support
7. You'll be challenged, you'll have fun, and you'll make new friends
8. You'll be helping people deepen their relationship with Jesus (you'll be evangelizing!)
9. You'll be handing on a 2000-year-old Tradition that changes lives
- 10.10. It's our job: Jesus sent us to "go and teach all nations"

Drug, alcohol and gambling addiction is a disease which is chronic, progressive and treatable, but terminal if untreated. Recovery is possible if the person is willing to ask for help and work toward that goal. Families with addicted family members also need help and understanding. Worry, fear and anger destroy both relationships and the family unit. The Substance Abuse Team is available to reach out with support and care. CONFIDENTIALITY AND ANONYMITY are the very essence of our ministry.

MEN'S SATURDAY MORNING SCRIPTURE GROUP

Did you know that the Mens Bible study group has met in Coggins Hall every Saturday morning for over 20 years? It's a lively yet reflective group of guys that read and discuss the scriptures for the coming Sunday Mass. What do we get out of it? An appreciation of God's word coming from many perspectives. Sometimes as we listen to scripture in church it doesn't make sense, but going in having discussed the coming readings brings things into a better light. There's just one catch, we meet at 6AM on Saturday morning. Too early you say? We find it to be the best time of day to reflect and talk before the world really gets cranked up. We end by 7:30 so you have the rest of the day to meet the many activities we all have. We hope you'll join us and see how we help each other appreciate the beauty of God's word and the beauty of the life he has given each of us. For more information? Call John Ruskuls at 847-394-5693 or Brian Murphy at 847-298-5186.

Office of Human Dignity & Solidarity Immigration Ministry

Migrants are persons, with their own names, stories and families. There can never be true peace as long as a single human being is violated in his or her personal identity and reduced to a mere statistic." —Pope Francis

The Dream Act of 2017, S. 1615, was recently introduced in the Senate. If passed into law, this bipartisan bill would protect immigrant youth who entered the U.S. as children with "conditional permanent resident status" and a path to full lawful permanent residency and eventual citizenship. This includes the 780,000 young people who received temporary relief from deportation and employment eligibility through the Department of Homeland Security's DACA program. These individuals are leaders in our parishes and communities, academic standouts in our universities, veterans of our military, and contributors to our economy.

ACTION: The Catholic Church believes in protecting the dignity of every human person and has long supported DREAMERS. Ask your senators to co-sponsor the Dream Act of 2017, by visiting the USCCB website www.JusticeforImmigrants.org.

Volunteers in this ministry pray daily for the needs of the community and the world. Many in this ministry are homebound. The goal of this ministry is to connect those who are no longer physically able to join us for worship, but can offer prayer for the community. They have meaningful gifts to offer through their service of prayer. A monthly letter is sent asking the ministers to pray daily for the intentions mentioned. If you know a homebound person who would like to be part of this ministry, please call the PMC. Contact: Sr. Valerie Kulbacki at 847-253-8600 x143 / sr.val@st-raymond.org.

Domestic violence is a pattern of behavior. It is used to exert power and control over another person. It is found in the context of a dating, family or household relationship.

Questions to ask:

- Does your partner isolate you from family and friends?
- Are you being physically, psychologically, economically or sexually abused?
- Is your partner attempting to destroy your self-esteem and self-confidence?

Domestic violence victims often report:

The Venerable Fr. Michael McGivney founded the Knights of Columbus for three reasons:

to support men in their faith, to bring greater charity to their community, and to protect the financial stability of their families. Imagine, being part of an organization that fills your heart and your mind with the joy of helping and giving to others. Imagine the feeling that comes with making a difference not only in someone else's life but in your life as well.

VISITATION OF THE SICK: If you or a family member are in a local hospital or are homebound, and would like a visit from a minister of care or a priest, please call Sr. Valerie Kulbacki (x143), Director of Care Ministries.

BAPTISM: Our Baptismal Ministry is pleased to help your family prepare for the special event of your child's entrance into our faith community. Through our Baptism Ministry, you are welcomed to meet with other new parents as well as a host couple with the goal of better understanding your role as a Christian parent and also to help plan the Baptism liturgy. Our goal is to make your child's entrance into our Faith Community a rich and rewarding experience. Baptisms are scheduled on the 1st and 4th Sunday at 1:00 p.m., the 2nd Saturday at 12 noon, except during the season of Lent. Parents and Godparents are encouraged to prepare themselves for this Sacrament through a preparation meeting at least two months in advance of the celebration. Please call the Worship Office (x145) for more information.

ADULT CHRISTIAN INITIATION: If you are looking for a place to belong or for a church community with whom you can share your questions and beliefs, perhaps you would like to find out more about what it means to be a Catholic Christian. The Faith Community of Saint Raymond has something quite special to offer and we would love to share the gift of faith with you. Please call the parish office at 847-253-8600 for more information regarding the RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults).

MARRIAGE: If you are planning to be married at St. Raymond, your preparation process should begin approximately one year prior to your wedding date. Please call the Worship Office 847-253-8600 (x145) to secure a date as soon as possible. Membership at St. Raymond is not a requirement. We look forward to helping you during this time of engagement and preparation for the vocation of Christian marriage.
