Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

Grace was given to each of us according to the measure of Christ's gift. Therefore, scripture says: "He ascended on high and took prisoners captive; he gave gifts to men"...Living the truth in love, we should grow in every way into him who is the head, Christ, from whom the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, with the proper functioning of each part, brings about the body's growth and builds itself up in love. (Ephesians 4:7-8, 15-16)

Among the components of physical fitness, flexibility is the capacity for our joints to move smoothly through a full range of motion. In the spiritual life, this corresponds to the component of SHARING. The Church as Body of Christ in the world must remain flexible so that all the gifts are able to contribute freely to the mission of the People of God.

In the Letter to the Ephesians, the apostle Paul references Psalm 68:19, one of the great divine warrior psalms which portrays God as the liberator of his people, taking back prisoners of war and the sharing spoils of war with all the people. It is an image of the power of God which will work through the Church. Paul also interprets this in light of the Resurrection of Jesus. The Ascension of Jesus opens up the mission of the Church. Our mission is empowered with the gifts of the Holy Spirit which are given to the Church at Pentecost.

Three principles guide the sharing of gifts. The first is the necessity of all the gifts. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ...The eye cannot say to the head, "I do not need you," nor again the head to the feet, "I do not need you." (1 Corinthians 12:12, 21) It is important that every gift be identified and harmonized into the movement of the Body of Christ so that our mission can be carried out effectively. If any gift is inactive, the whole Body is weakened.

The second principle is the communal character of the gifts. Gifts are not graces that God gives to us for our own private enjoyment. Gifts are given to us to give to others. I urge you, by the mercies of God, to offer your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and pleasing to God, your spiritual worship. Be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that you may discern what is the will of God. For by the grace given to me I tell everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than one ought to think, but to think soberly, each according to the measure of faith that God has apportioned. (Romans 12:1, 3)

The Bible calls self-giving sharing of gifts "spiritual sacrifice". So, gifts are only activated as they are shared in community. And gifts can only be known in community. Paul talks about the humility that is necessary to have the accurate self-knowledge of what gifts we have. We need the help of other followers of Jesus to know what our gifts really are. Others may see gifts in us that we do not see in ourselves. Others may help us to see that we are really are not gifted in a certain way.

Finally there is the complementarity of the gifts - the gifts only work when they work together. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To one is given through the Spirit the expression of wisdom - to another the expression of knowledge according to the same Spirit. To another faith by the same Spirit - to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit. To another prophecy - to another discernment of spirits. To another varieties of tongues - to another Interpretation of tongues. But one and the same Spirit produces all of these, distributing them individually to each person as he wishes. (1 Corinthians 12:4-11)

As I develop my own gifts, I must remember that my gifts are not effective by themselves, but only as they are complemented by the gifts of others. This is why mission and ministry are only successful as they are carried out in dialogue and collaboration.

As stretching is a common exercise to improve flexibility, so we must stretch ourselves in the spiritual life. It is only through opening ourselves to new challenges that our gifts can be developed. So, in this Easter season, let us ask ourselves honestly what gifts we have received from the Holy Spirit, and let us make sure that our gifts are active in the Body of Christ.

Peace be with you,

Fr. Scott Hebden, Pastor

BACKPACK MINISTRY

COVID-19 Update

Thank you so much for your generous donations to the St. Raymond Backpack Ministry!

Because of your support, we have been able to continue our mission safely during this challenging time. Working in consultation with school district administrators, we have provided grocery store gift cards for each Backpack Ministry family every two weeks since school buildings closed. This will continue until school is no longer in session and summer food programs begin.

In addition, the remaining food from our supply was donated to the Mount Prospect Food Pantry. We especially wanted to thank our St. Raymond staff in conjunction with Mount Prospect Village Hall—helpers from Public Works and the Fire Department assisted in the transfer of food.

God bless you all for your prayers and support—together we've made a difference to help those in need in our community.

Support Groups for Those Suffering with Addiction and Their Loved Ones

Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) | Co-Dependents Anonymous (CODA)

Drug, alcohol and gambling addiction is a disease which is chronic, progressive and treatable, but terminal if untreated. Recovery is possible if the person is willing to ask for help and work toward that goal. Families with addicted family members also need help and understanding. Worry, fear and anger destroy both relationships and the family unit. The Substance Abuse Team is available to reach out with support and care. CONFIDENTIALITY AND ANONYMITY are the very essence of our ministry.

Please call our team members for help:

Ministry for Our Homebound Parishioners

Are you aware that any parishioner who is recuperating following an accident, illness, or surgery is welcome to receive the Eucharist at home? If you or a loved one is homebound and would like a visit from a Minister of Care, please contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143 or email Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org to make arrangements.

We are happy to bring St. Raymond to you!

Patients at Northwest Community Hospital

In late October we received word from the Spiritual Care Services Department at Northwest Community Hospital that they will no longer send the daily patient census to the Ministry of Care Coordinators at the parishes and other churches. Up to this time, Sr. Val received a confidential listing of St. Raymond parishioners at NCH, enabling us to offer the pastoral care that we want to provide for our parishioners experiencing illness requiring hospital care. Due to this change in policy, there is no way to know if any of our parishioners are at NCH. Therefore, if a loved one has been hospitalized at NCH, we would deeply appreciate a call or email with this information. This is also true for patients at Lutheran General, Alexian Brothers, and Resurrection Hospitals. Please contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143 or Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org when a loved one is hospitalized so that we can continue to provide pastoral care during a time of illness. Thank you.

St. Raymond Parish Domestic Violence Outreach Awareness-Services-Prevention

Awareness

Domestic violence is a pattern of behavior. It is used to exert power and control over another person. It is found in the context of a dating, family or household relationship.

Questions to ask:

- Does your partner isolate you from family and friends?
- Are you being physically, psychologically, economically or sexually abused?
- Is your partner attempting to destroy your self-esteem and self-confidence?

Domestic violence victims often report:

"I didn't know it was abuse."
"I thought I could fix it."
"I didn't tell anyone."

These are traps that keep people bound.

Domestic violence. Dating Violence.
No Excuse

You are loved and you are not alone.

Ministry Event

During Ramadan, our Muslim friends fast every day, from sunrise to sunset. The fast comes to an end every evening with a great dinner shared with their community and with others. The community's breaking of the fast celebration dinner is just as important as the personal fast, itself.

The Niagara Turkish American Society of Mount Prospect not only shares this dinner by inviting friends to their Center, they also take the "Breaking of the Fast Dinner Experience" out into the larger community, so it can be shared with many other communities, like us.

Because of the pandemic, the Niagara Turkish American Society cannot gather, but instead, invites the St Raymond and the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Chicago to share in the experience of a virtual "Breaking of the Fast Iftar Dinner Program" on Monday, May 18th at 7:00 PM – 8:00 PM, via Zoom.

As non-Muslim guests, the Niagara Group invites us to participate in any way we wish in order to feel comfortable as we share their tradition; eat dinner as you normally do, but perhaps save your dessert to the 8 PM official call to "Break the Fast," or fast the full day, as they do, and wait with them until the official call at 8 PM to eat your dinner, or simply sit back, participating by just observing.

There is no better way for strangers to become friends than sharing a meal, even if it must be virtually. Please join us!

Teachers Reaching Out to Connect with Students

Missing their classes, the preschool staff created personalized yard messages for each student to reach out and bring both joy and excitement to students and teachers alike. The connection between the students and teachers inspired and uplifted everyone to keep their faith and stay strong while apart

"Our inspiration was to let the preschoolers know how much we miss them. We wanted to give them something meaningful that would remind them of the happy times we had together in preschool, said Mrs. Colleen Cunningham, Early Childhood Director.

Pray for Our Sick As Members of the Parish Faith Community, it is our responsibility to remember both in concrete and spiritual ways those who cannot celebrate with us each week because they are ill. Those who are sick in turn, remember all of us daily in their prayers and in their sufferings. We experience many blessings because of their remembering us. And so ... please remember in your prayers the people listed. *Infant
