Dear St. Raymond Family:

Please extend a warm welcome to both Daniel and Anthony, two Mundelein Seminarians, from the Diocese of Albany, New York. These men will be serving in our Parish over the next year while they are studying at the seminary. They will be on campus for various masses to meet parishioners, learn about ministries and parish life, and help with parish formation opportunities. A Teaching Parish Committee has been created and is comprised of a diverse group of parishioners. This group will meet with the seminarians, throughout the year, to share their perspective on parish dynamics and immerse them in our community to help them develop skills and insight for their future priestly ministry. We are excited to have them joining us for the 2020-2021 school year. If you see them at mass or on campus, please take a moment to introduce yourself.

Anthony Onu

My name is Anthony Chibueze Onu. I was born and raised in Nigeria. I grew up in a devout Catholic family. The youngest boy among my five brothers and two sisters. I am blessed to be part of such a tremendous family. They have been a real source of support in my life. I had my early education in my home country before coming to the States for a master's program as an international student in 2017. Currently, I am at Mundelein Seminary, studying for the Catholic Diocese of Albany, New York, as a candidate for the Catholic priesthood.

I am excited to be part of St. Raymond de Peñafort's family for my parish integration experience. Please, keep me in your prayers and be assured of my prayers for you all.

Thanks, and remain blessed in the Lord.

I am Daniel Vallejo Rios from Colombia, 27 years old, and Seminarian of the second year of Theology from Mundelein Seminary. My family is originally from Spain and my home Diocese is in Albany, NY. I am very excited to have the opportunity to share my vocation and process of formation to the priesthood at St. Raymond de Peñafort. I am sure that God assigned us in the right community to increase in faith, love, and devotion to Christ. I had the opportunity to attend Mass and to meet with Fr. Scott. I know that my time here spent with the staff and community will be beneficial to learning about parish life in the US and I hope to offer some an encounter with God. You as a community of faith are going to strengthen my vocation and provide those experiences to enrich my future ministry. I am going to be helping with formation opportunities at the parish. But I will also be learning from each of you. Especially in this uncertain time where God calls us to be united not only as parishioners but as brothers and sisters in Christ.

God Bless you all.

Last week the latest Capital Campaign project to expand the sidewalk pad to a car drop off pad on Lincoln St. was completed. Parishioners can be dropped off and walk up the ramp to enter the church. The pad is conveniently before the entrance to the parking lot. The driver can proceed with caution to make a left into the parking lot. Street markings will be coming soon to show this is not a parking area. Please be aware this is still a crossing from the parking lot.

After: Crosswalk pad expanded to a car length.

Celebrating First Communion and Community

Delayed due to the pandemic, the St. Raymond community came together to celebrate the long awaited milestone of our now 3rd grade communicants. Before the big event, Principal Ward presented each student with a prayer card and a coupon for a sweet treat from our local Capannari's Ice Cream. Then, the third grade students proudly displayed their decorated banners while encircling the school.

"This was so wonderful for our children. I am glad that they could have a special day. They waited long enough," said parent Ashley Everson. As the traditional communion songs played over the loudspeaker, parents cheered on the students while the St. Raymond School's staff members and students paraded by, waving their congratulations to the communicants.

"We are happy to keep up our tradition of honoring our St. Raymond School communicants in this special way. We are very proud of our students and are excited that we could bring this group together as a class to celebrate!" said Principal Ward.

PADS

St Mark has a long history of providing support for the homeless as one of our ministries. For 30 years, our volunteers with support from members of St. Raymond and other local churches have provided shelter and food to the homeless through the PADS program. Last March, due to the COVID pandemic, the usual PADS shelter program was suspended. With government and private funding support, the homeless guests have been housed in local hotels for the spring and summer. During this time, the churches which support the PADS program have continued to provide food for the guests. PADS Sites dropped off dinners and made breakfast and lunch bags for the guests. Since this effort began in March, St. Mark PADS has provided over 2900 meals. We are now approaching October when PADS sites traditionally open their doors. Due to the ongoing health guidelines, we will not be hosting guests each Monday night. The guests will remain sheltered in the hotels at least through December.

THERE ARE TWO WAYS THAT YOU CAN HELP

1. The PADS Sites have been asked to continue to provide the meals. St. Mark PADS will be providing hot dinners for 50 people one night each week. Our teams which usually prepare and serve the dinners for the St. Mark guests on Monday are organizing to provide this support. If you would like to assist this effort by baking or preparing portions of a dinner meal, please contact Maura Reschke mhreschke@icloud.com
2. We also will be packing 5 Meal Boxes each week. Each meal box will provide breakfast and lunch for 2 people for the week. We are asking for donations to provide the food for these meal boxes. If you are interested in helping, we use an application called Sign Up Genius. Via this tool, we have prepared a list of the food items which are needed to prepare the meal boxes. It is an easy way to see what is needed. You can choose what you want to contribute and drop off at St. Mark. This is the link to the Sign Up Genius for the Meal Boxes for the month of October.
<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/9040844ABAC22A4F58-october>

Drop-off of the food will be at the St. Mark Center on Saturday mornings 10:00 – 12:00 p.m. or
Monday afternoons between 4:00 and 5:30p.m.

If you have any questions about the Meal Box program or would like to contribute but cannot access the Sign Up Genius, please contact Mike Mokate – mike.mokate56@gmail.com or 847-846-6576.

Thank you for your generous support of this ministry for some of our most vulnerable neighbors.

It didn't take long for the Archdiocese to send a replacement for St. Raymond's beloved Father O'Brien. Father Leo P. Coggins became the parish's second pastor in June, 1963, coming from St. Bonaventure parish in Chicago.

Father Coggins quickly picked up where Father O'Brien had left off. Wanting to make his mark, he approached the Archdiocese for permission to build a new rectory on the southwest corner of the block. But the Archdiocese would not allow it. They had a moratorium on the building of rectories in effect and would not make an exception.

Well, Father Coggins proved that adversity is truly the mother of invention because when they turned down his original plan, he quickly came up with another. He decided to consolidate the two existing Tudor homes on the block and make them into offices, meeting rooms and living quarters for the priests. He would not live there, however. He planned to maintain a separate pastor's residence right next door at 313 S. I-Oka Avenue.

Even officials at the Archdiocese considered his plan "ingenious," according to A History of the Parishes of the Archdiocese of Chicago, edited in 1980 by Monsignor Harry Koenig. There were two problems with it, however – the two families living in those houses.

One was easily solved. The parish already owned the house at 311 S. I-Oka Avenue. Its maintenance man was living there. So in November, 1963, Father Coggins purchased another nearby home, located at 218 S. Elmhurst Road, to serve as a janitor's home.

The one remaining privately-owned home at 309 S. I-Oka Avenue, however, was another matter.

"My husband, Jack, was out of town," recalls Nell Steinmiller, "and I approached the painter who was next door painting the convent for an estimate. He shook his head and said that he wouldn't do any painting, if he were me, because the church wanted our house."

Right after that Father Coggins approached them with a formal proposal and although the Steinmillers took several days to mull it over, Nell says they felt that they really had little choice but to acquiesce to Father Coggins' wishes. They were given until the end of 1963 to move and they used every day of it.

On December 31, 1963 the Steinmillers sold their three-bedroom home at 309 S. I-Oka Avenue to St. Raymond and the parish Father Leo P. Coggins became the second pastor of St. Raymond de Penafort in June, 1963.

Pages from the illustrated history by Jean Powley Murphy sold the five-bedroom rectory at 218 S. I-Oka Avenue to the Steinmillers.

The parish retained ownership of the empty lot at 216 S. I-Oka Avenue, directly north of the house.

As soon as the Steinmillers moved out, Father Coggins set parishioner and local contractor, Ben Trapani, to work on connecting the two homes. He was assisted by Ted Erbach, the church's architect.

"It was not particularly difficult," Trapani recalls. "The houses were only separated by about five feet so we dug a foundation to connect the two basements."

"They also took the fireplace out of our simple enclosed ramp, Trapani explains. It remains the pastor's private residence but now has access to the rectory kitchen and dining room, as well as the offices.

With his plans for a new rectory in full swing, Father Coggins turned his creative processes to how best to use the southwestern corner of the block, since he wasn't going to be allowed to build a rectory on it. He also wanted to create a fitting memorial to his predecessor and the parish founder, Father O'Brien. The result was a combination of both.

He put together a committee of interested parishioners and together they drew up plans for a memorial park on that corner of the block and dubbed it "O'Brien Park". Within the park is a marble statue of the Virgin Mary which is dedicated to the memory of Father Coggins' parents, Patrick and Frances Coggins. The committee also chose to carry out Father O'Brien's long-time, but unfulfilled, dream. They commissioned a ten-foot marble statue of St. Raymond de Pennafort to be placed just to the left former home, rearranged rooms making them into separate 'apartments' for the priests and took out a pretty, open staircase," Steinmiller says. "Our living room became a bedroom for one of the apartments."

The combined efforts of two parishioners, builder Ben Trapani and architect Ted Erbach, brought Father Coggins' plans for a new rectory to fruition.

When Trapani and Erbach were done with the $42,627 renovation, there was an arched niche on the front of the building where the front door of the middle house had once been. The two decided to donate a lovely statue of Jesus Christ for that space. It is still there.

The southernmost house was connected to the other two some time later, using a of the church's front doors. For the base of the statue they ordered a memorial plaque made of German silver with O'Brien's likeness and some words of tribute on it.

Thanks to the renovations and the new memorial park, another door-to-door fundraising campaign, similar to the one conducted in 1959, was held during the fall of 1964 and it's a good thing that money was solicited because upheaval came to St. Raymond, as well as virtually every other parish in the country, in the wake of the Second Vatican Council (known as Vatican II) in 1965. Ministry for Our Homebound Parishioners

Are you aware that any parishioner who is recuperating following an accident, illness, or surgery is welcome to receive the Eucharist at home? If you or a loved one is homebound and would like a visit from a Minister of Care, please contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143 or email Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org to make arrangements.

We are happy to bring St. Raymond to you!

Patients at Northwest Community Hospital

In late October we received word from the Spiritual Care Services Department at Northwest Community Hospital that they will no longer send the daily patient census to the Ministry of Care Coordinators at the parishes and other churches. Up to this time, Sr. Val received a confidential listing of St. Raymond parishioners at NCH, enabling us to offer the pastoral care that we want to provide for our parishioners experiencing illness requiring hospital care. Due to this change in policy, there is no way to know if any of our parishioners are at NCH. Therefore, if a loved one has been hospitalized at NCH, we would deeply appreciate a call or email with this information. This is also true for patients at Lutheran General, Alexian Brothers, and Resurrection Hospitals. Please contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143 or Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org when a loved one is hospitalized so that we can continue to provide pastoral care during a time of illness. Thank you.

ST. RAYMOND PARISH DOMESTIC VIOLENCE OUTREACH

AWARENESS

Domestic violence is a pattern of behavior. It is used to exert power and control over another person. It is found in the context of a dating, family or household relationship.

Questions to ask:

- Does your partner isolate you from family and friends?
- Are you being physically, psychologically, economically or sexually abused?
- Is your partner attempting to destroy your self-esteem and self-confidence?

Domestic violence victims often report:

"I didn't know it was abuse."

"I thought I could fix it."

"I didn't tell anyone."

These are traps that keep people bound.

Domestic violence. Dating Violence.
