Confirmation, a sacrament of initiation, establishes young adults as full-fledged members of the faith. This sacrament is called Confirmation because the faith given in Baptism is now confirmed and made strong. During your Baptism, your parents and godparents make promises to renounce Satan and believe in God and the Church on your behalf. At Confirmation, you renew those same promises, this time speaking for yourself.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ST. RAYMOND SCHOOL PRINCIPAL Ms. Mary Eileen Ward on receiving the SAN DAMIANO TURNAROUND AWARD

After 7 years of dedicated service to St. Raymond School, Ms. Ward was recognized this week for her outstanding leadership as a recipient of the San Damiano Turnaround Award. When St. Francis of Assisi knelt before the San Damiano cross, he heard God ask him to "Renew My Church." This award is given to principals who embody this renewal by achieving a successful school environment. Recipients have been effective and positive agents of change through programmatic enhancements, enrollment increases, improvements in financial vitality, and a restoration of hope.

"Your award is very well deserved. You are truly making a difference through your exceptional leadership!" said Dr. Jim Rigg, Superintendent of Catholic Schools Archdiocese of Chicago. "I hope this award provides affirmation of your hard work, leadership, and dedication. Congratulations again. Thanks for accepting the call to Catholic school leadership!"

"Mary Eileen is an incredibly effective school leader. While combining her spiritual skill set along with her ability to lead instructionally, St. Raymond Catholic School is in great hands. Mary Eileen is a visionary. She sees the bigger picture in all of her decision making. She is collaborative, problem-solving, compassionate and level headed. Her ability to bring calm to situations and find solutions makes her an incredibly strong school principal. She is most deserving of this award!" said Merry Quinn, Regional Director for Vicariate I, Archdiocese of Chicago, Office of Catholic Schools.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR EXCEPTIONAL LEADERSHIP!

The Faith Community of St Raymond de Penafort resulted in a new, more people-centered liturgy and certain physical changes to the church were necessary. The main altar was made smaller and turned to face the people while the tabernacle was enlarged and elevated to fit the rear wall of the sanctuary, all at a cost of $9500. The Catholic Woman's Club of Chicago donated $4,000 of it.

Father Coggins once again turned to Ben Trapani and it was during this time that the two became close friends. Trapani also became one of Father Coggins' two lay apostles, acting as a go-between for both the pastor and the parishioners. Norb Peeters was his counterpart.

"Father Coggins was an innovator,"

Father O'Brien's untimely death cut short his plans for a large marble statue of the parish's patron saint at the entrance to the new church. His successor followed through on the statue and dedicated it to the memory of Father O'Brien.

Trapani observes. "He wanted to make changes."

The work was finished in time for the Christmas Masses of 1965.

According to the 1966 Parish Welcome Book, "critics from far and wide have proclaimed the new Sanctuary as ideal and the most fitting representation of the new liturgy as proclaimed by the Vatican Council." They then went on to explain the changes.

"With the advent of the new liturgy of the church, the main altar was reduced in size to the new dimensions and relocated in the middle of the sanctuary to face the people, and the present tabernacle was enlarged and elevated to fit into the rear wall of the sanctuary," it explained. "A crown of bronze with colored jewels concealing the new flood lights for the altar was erected over the mensa symbolizing the kingship of Christ. Immediately above the tabernacle in bold relief is a figure of a pelican feeding her young, symbolic of Christ feeding us with

O'Brien Park on the southwestern corner of the church block is a lovely place for quiet reflection and prayer.

Pages from the illustrated history by Jean Powley Murphy

The new church was remodeled in 1965 to become more people-centered. The main altar was made smaller and turned to face the people and the tabernacle was moved to the rear wall of the sanctuary. In addition, a crown of bronze with colored jewels concealing new flood lights was erected over the mensa to symbolize the kingship of Christ.

His own flesh in the Eucharist. Seven rays emanate from the tabernacle, the three long rays symbolizing the seven Sacraments that leave an indelible character on the soul and the four shorter rays, the other Sacraments. The large cross was edged in gold leaf and raised five feet to be visible throughout the church. The altar in the convent and in the auditorium were also renovated to conform to the new liturgical standards."

By this time organist Hazel Voorhees had passed away and been replaced by several people. Charlotte Weigle, a lay teacher in the school and also a parishioner, accompanied the choir. Marcella Odmark played the 12:30 Mass each Sunday and also played for many funerals. Others played for the other Masses.

"I remember Charlotte and two other women, Jeanne Mathews and Lina Doyle, providing the music for funerals," recalls Myron Weigle. "The three of them would work together and earn $5 per funeral. I used to laugh because it cost the three of them more than that, just for the babysitters!"

The choir was still an important musical presence in the parish. Joe Molumby, its founding director, had been replaced by William Jean who, in turn, was replaced by Herman Baldassarre in the spring of 1965.

Meanwhile, the school was growing by leaps and bounds. Sr. Mary Athanasius was the principal when the school's enrollment peaked at 1358 students in 1964. Her faculty consisted of 12 nuns and 13 lay teachers. By 1966 they had added special teachers for singing, art, physical education and remedial work, bringing the faculty total to 13 nuns

Pray and Learn

Pray for those on the front lines. Heavenly Father, we pray for the people of this nation and every nation that we might work to bring liberty, justice and peace to all. We ask that you care for the men and women who serve our country in all ways, that they might know of our prayers and be blessed and protected through your ever loving presence. Amen.

Please visit st-raymond.org/bulletin for the full listing of prayer intentions for our front line workers of the parish and family and friends of the parish.

Building for Hope

Support Shelter Stability

PADS UPDATE

Volunteers from St. Raymond parish partner with the St. Mark's PADS site providing shelter and meals to the homeless. When the PADS program was suspended due to COVID-19, the PADS sites have continued to provide food for the guests. Since March, St. Mark PADS has provided OVER 2900 MEALS for the guests of the program.

October is when PADS sites traditionally open their doors. Due to the ongoing health guidelines, the guests will remain sheltered in the hotels at least through December. We will continue to serve this community through the fall.

YOU CAN HELP!

TWO WAYS TO HELP

- St. Mark PADS will be providing hot dinners for 50 people one night each week. Our food teams are organizing to provide this support. If you would like to assist this effort by baking or preparing portions of a dinner meal, please contact St. Raymond parishioner, Maura Reschke at mhreschke@icloud.com
- We also will be packing 5 Meal Boxes each week. Each meal box will provide breakfast and lunch for 2 people for the week. If you are interested in donating, please sign up using Sign Up Genius for the month of October Meal Boxes.
<https://www.signupgenius.com/go/9040844ABAC22A4F58-october>

Food Drop-off will be at the St. Mark Center on Saturdays from 10:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. and Mondays between 4:00 - 5:30 p.m.

If you have any questions about the Meal Box program or would like to contribute but cannot access the Sign Up Genius, please contact Mike Mokate at 847-846-6576 or mike.mokate56@gmail.com.

Support Groups for Those Suffering with Addiction and Their Loved Ones

Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) | Co-Dependents Anonymous (CODA)

Drug, alcohol and gambling addiction is a disease which is chronic, progressive and treatable, but terminal if untreated. Recovery is possible if the person is willing to ask for help and work toward that goal. Families with addicted family members also need help and understanding. Worry, fear and anger destroy both relationships and the family unit. The Substance Abuse Team is available to reach out with support and care. CONFIDENTIALITY AND ANONYMITY are the very essence of our ministry.

Ministry for Our Homebound Parishioners

Are you aware that any parishioner who is recuperating following an accident, illness, or surgery is welcome to receive the Eucharist at home? If you or a loved one is homebound and would like a visit from a Minister of Care, please contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143 or email Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org to make arrangements.

We are happy to bring St. Raymond to you!

Patients at Northwest Community Hospital

In late October we received word from the Spiritual Care Services Department at Northwest Community Hospital that they will no longer send the daily patient census to the Ministry of Care Coordinators at the parishes and other churches. Up to this time, Sr. Val received a confidential listing of St. Raymond parishioners at NCH, enabling us to offer the pastoral care that we want to provide for our parishioners experiencing illness requiring hospital care. Due to this change in policy, there is no way to know if any of our parishioners are at NCH. Therefore, if a loved one has been hospitalized at NCH, we would deeply appreciate a call or email with this information. This is also true for patients at Lutheran General, Alexian Brothers, and Resurrection Hospitals. Please contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143 or Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org when a loved one is hospitalized so that we can continue to provide pastoral care during a time of illness. Thank you.

St. Raymond Parish Domestic Violence Outreach Awareness-Services-Prevention

Awareness

Domestic violence is a pattern of behavior. It is used to exert power and control over another person. It is found in the context of a dating, family or household relationship.

Questions to ask:

- Does your partner isolate you from family and friends?
- Are you being physically, psychologically, economically or sexually abused?
- Is your partner attempting to destroy your self-esteem and self-confidence?

Domestic violence victims often report:

"I didn't know it was abuse."

"I thought I could fix it."

"I didn't tell anyone."

These are traps that keep people bound.

Domestic violence. Dating Violence.

No Excuse

You are loved and you are not alone.

Pray for Our Sick As Members of the Parish Faith Community, it is our responsibility to remember both in concrete and spiritual ways those who cannot celebrate with us each week because they are ill. Those who are sick in turn, remember all of us daily in their prayers and in their sufferings. We experience many blessings because of their remembering us. And so ... please remember in your prayers the people listed. *Infant

WHY IS IT

A man wakes up after sleeping under an ADVERTISED blanket on an ADVERTISED mattress and pulls off ADVERTISED pajamas bathes in an ADVERTISED shower shaves with an ADVERTISED razor brushes his teeth with ADVERTISED toothpaste washes with ADVERTISED soap puts on ADVERTISED clothes drinks a cup of ADVERTISED coffee drives to work in an ADVERTISED car and then refuses to ADVERTISE believing it doesn't pay. Later if business is poor he ADVERTISES it for sale.

WHY IS IT?

• LeafGuard® is guaranteed never to clog or we'll clean it for FREE®

- Seamless, one-piece system keeps out leaves, pine needles, and debris
- Eliminates the risk of falling off a ladder to clean clogged gutters
- Durable, all-weather tested system not a flimsy attachment
