Parish Financial Update

October 25, 2020

Dear Sisters and Brothers of St. Raymond,

Every fall, throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago, parishes present their annual financial report to the parishioners based on the previous fiscal year, which runs from July 1 - June 30. This year is no exception, even in the midst of a pandemic. St. Raymond's full annual financial report will be available in the bulletin and on-line (www.st-raymond.org) by mid-November.

When the 2019-2020 fiscal year began, none of us could have predicted a global pandemic which has affected every aspect of our daily lives. The impact has been felt personally and/or financially by each of us, yet many of you continue to sacrificially give to support the parish. I am thankful for your generosity which enabled us to keep the parish operating. I am also grateful for the ways our parish (school and church) staff and volunteers have stepped up to meet this unprecedented challenge.

For many people in the parish, reading financial reports might not offer a complete picture of our financial outlook. As pastor, I take seriously being a responsible steward of the parish resources that is collected through weekly, monthly, and annual contributions along with school and religious education/youth ministry tuition. My hope is this recap will offer a broad perspective on the overall parish financial health with accuracy and transparency.

July 2019 – June 2020 Recap

For the 2019- 2020 fiscal year, the parish had a deficit of $130,000. Over the last 5 years the parish has ended each year with a deficit. In the 2018-2019 fiscal year, the parish ended with a church-school combined deficit of $235,539. Each year the parish runs at a deficit, that income shortfall is covered by taking money from the parish savings.

5- Year Chart of Ordinary Income

At the end of 2019-20, the balance of savings available to cover future deficits was $640,000. As can be seen from the chart below, in recent years, the collection income has not been sufficient to provide the needed subsidy to offset the cost of the school expenses. This has meant that the end-of-year deficit in school operating expenses has been taken from parish savings. It is worth noting that 2019-2020 school deficit is significantly lower than recent years. The Principal, staff, and Operations Director worked hard to decrease expenditures for the year by over $240,000. However, the yearly ordinary income surplus on the church side has slowly eroded over the years to the point where the church also operated at a deficit in 2019-2020. Although the parish 2019-2020 deficit was substantially reduced, savings will eventually be depleted if the parish continually uses these funds to pay ordinary expenses.

2019-2020 Monthly Monetary Collections

The total collected income for the 2019-20 year came to $987,006 which was down roughly $190,000 from the previous year. A decrease in contributions was seen between March – June 2020, which can be attributed to the pandemic. The pandemic also prevented us from holding several parish fundraisers and gatherings including two Fish Fry Fridays, Easter Egg Hunt, Garage Sale, and Summer Picnic. Despite the shortfall, we still give thanks for the generosity of our community who contributed either weekly/monthly through electronic giving or mailing/dropping off envelopes. Your contributions enabled the parish to offer live streaming of masses and enhance our communication output across platforms in an effort to keep the community connected and lifted in hope through our faith.

Current Fiscal Year 2020-2021

The budget for the 2020-2021 fiscal year was drafted at the beginning of the pandemic. The former Operations Director worked to move the parish toward a balanced budget. The hope had been that the pandemic would be under control by the end of the summer. However, the continuation of the health crisis, coupled with the uncertainty of a possible resurgence through the winter, will certainly present a challenge for a balanced budget within this fiscal year.

To Teach Who Christ Is

The parish facilities are in overall excellent condition through the generosity of those who have and continue to contribute to the capital campaign. These donations provide a strong foundation for ongoing facility needs. During the 2019-20 fiscal year, the school boiler was replaced, a family bathroom built and permanent video cameras for live-streaming in the church were installed. Most recently, you have seen the remodeled school entrance and an handicapped accessible drop-off for the church. These capital campaign funds are designated solely for larger facilities and capital projects that will keep the campus buildings and grounds maintained. This fund is not part of the reserve savings and may not be used to cover deficits in the operating budgets of the parish or school.

There is a significant increase of expenses (in the range of $50,000 - $75,000) for cleaning and disinfecting supplies needed to keep the church and the school open. Our collection income during the months of the pandemic has been roughly 84% of our normal collections. This is excellent retention of our collection income in comparison with other archdiocesan parishes, but potentially leaves a shortfall of about $80,000. The ongoing pandemic prevents us from holding large events that would normally be a source of significant fundraising for the parish. The Gala, planned for November, has been postponed. Again, we are grateful for those who are continuing to support our St. Raymond parish during this hard hit time.

Our school enrollment for this year began at 80% of last year's enrollment. Again, in comparison with other archdiocesan parish school, St. Raymond still has a robust enrollment. However, given the social distancing requirements limiting the number of students in a classroom, coupled with student-teacher mandated ratios we must maintain a full faculty even with lower enrollment. This means we will be faced with the payroll obligations for a full faculty with only 80% of tuition income.

Fortunately, St. Raymond was granted a federal Payroll Protection Program (PPP) loan. This enabled us to continue to meet our full payroll obligations for church and school staff without placing anyone on furlough. The paperwork for the PPP loan must still be completed for the loan to be forgiven, but we anticipate this will be finalized in December. At present, we are forecasting a parish deficit of about $600,000, but once the PPP loan is forgiven it will offset the forecasted deficit. While the loan will help the parish weather the 2020-2021 fiscal year shortfalls, there is still potential for large future deficits and the eventual depletion of parish savings. If collection income and school enrollment do not return to pre-COVID levels in 2021-22, that will have serious consequences going forward.

Looking Ahead

Bill Stark, Operations Director, continues to work with staff to seek opportunities for cost cutting and expense management, but these are limited. Maintenance and utilities costs are not reduced by the pandemic. Compensation for parish and school staff accounts for 80% of our budget. The Archdiocese of Chicago has implemented a pay freeze for archdiocesan employees in the current fiscal year to help with the financial challenges from the pandemic.

It will be important going forward to do everything possible to make St. Raymond School self-supporting, so that its future is secure. We will be assessing ways to make the school self-sufficient through continued fundraising and adjustments in the tuition structure.

We will need on-going attention to parish fundraising. Before the pandemic, an invitation was extended to those who may feel called to serve on a new Commission for Fundraising and Parish Partnerships. That invitation remains open. There will be a fundraiser in November with another to be planned for late Spring/Summer.

Ultimately, it is only by evangelization and renewal of ministry that downward trends in mass attendance and finances can be reversed. We cannot expect the same donors to dig deeper and deeper into their pockets. We must continue to create more opportunities for ministry and formation outreach and entry points within our vibrant community. Opening our youth ministry to wider participation and developing young adult ministry are essential to this effort. As I have often mentioned, we are all called to use our gifts and talents to be true witnesses to the love of Jesus Christ, sent forth to lead lives as missionary disciples for the Church. Before the pandemic, an invitation was extended to those who may feel called to serve on new ministry commissions. That invitation remains open.

Again, the full year end report for 2019-2020 will be available through the bulletin and on-line at www.st-raymond.org mid-November. If you have any questions regarding the parish financial update, please contact Bill Stark, Operations Director, at b.stark@st-raymond.org or through the parish office.

Thanks to all who have been so generous in your support of our parish and school. Let us continue to be in prayer for our community that we will find new life and inspiration as we continue to serve the mission of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Peace Be With You,

Fr. Scott Hebden, Pastor

Celebrating Funerals During the Pandemic

For the past months all of us have been trying to live as normally and as safely as possible while the pandemic continues to affect our lives. As time has goes on however, "pandemic fatigue" has also entered our lives and we are seeing that especially manifested as family and friends gather to celebrate the funeral of their loved one. Unfortunately we have experienced an increasing lack of attention to the protocols in place for keeping family members, guests, and parish staff safe at funerals. Therefore, following discussions with our pastoral staff and bereavement ministers, we are implementing the following changes until we can safely return to our preferred way of celebrating funerals at St. Raymond: We are eliminating the gathering/wake in the church prior to the funeral Mass. In discussions with funeral directors we have found that the surrounding parishes have also instituted this change for the same reasons we are experiencing. In keeping with the protocols established by the Archdiocese of Chicago, the family is asked to provide the bereavement minister with a list of attendees prior to the funeral. Everyone on this list is asked to check-in with the greeter prior to entering the church. The funeral directors have been asked to arrive at the church with adequate time for all those in the funeral procession to check-in as well. The introductory rites of sprinkling the casket with holy water and laying the pall will be done toward the back of the church and immediate family members are welcome to walk behind the casket in the entrance procession. We have also experienced a large and increasing number of people entering the church who are not included on the list of names provided by the family. Therefore, we have asked funeral directors not to state the day and time of the funeral in the obituary. However, please note that the family is invited to include anyone they wish on the list and all are welcome to attend. We have not arrived at these changes lightly because we want to be as welcoming and as accommodating as possible for our bereaved families. But we also have a responsibility to keep everyone safe while ministering to their needs. Thank you for understanding. Please pray that we will soon be on the other side of this pandemic and that life, in all its aspects, can return to normal. If you have any questions or concerns about these changes, please contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143.

spiritual as well as physical; moral as well as intellectual, according to the teaching and examples of the Divine Master.

"Only in this way, we believe, can an institution of learning be successful in developing citizens of two worlds who are spiritually vigorous, intelligent, cultured, patriotic, vocationally-prepared and physically fit.

"May God assist us in this noble task, that we might accomplish the goals which we have herewith set forth."

Those parents who chose to educate their children in the public schools sent their children to the Confraternity of Christian Doctrine (CCD) classes at night and on weekends. Operated by lay volunteers under the direction of another lay volunteer, Dee Corr, CCD took care of the religious education of over 1200 public school children. It was not until July, 1969 that a parish staff member, Sister Mary Mrozynski, took over direction of this program. She would hold the position until the summer of 1972 when Sisters Mary Loftus and Jean Schulte replaced her.

Meanwhile, Father Coggins was seeking even more uses for the parish auditorium, so he had the former altar area transformed into a stage and an addition was made to the south side of the building. A large parish

Membership in the St. Aloysius Guild meant that a woman's son was an altar boy. The Guild handled the pressing and mending of the cassocks and the laundering of collars and gloves.

Bridge parties like this one were very popular during the 1950s and 1960s when few women worked outside the home. Such parties were often held as group fundraisers to support community or church projects. Courtesy, The Daily Herald.

kitchen, lots of storage and janitor facilities made up the first floor of the addition while the second floor was made into a science laboratory for the school. Marie Jeuck's husband, Philip, owner of Illinois Range Company, outfitted the entire kitchen as a huge donation to his wife's church. At the same time he was also outfitting a similar kitchen for St. Mark Lutheran Church, the church many of his family members attended.

And it's a good thing that those adjustments were made because when the huge snow fell in January, 1967, the auditorium/gymnasium became the temporary home of over 100 stranded motorists. Food (prepared in the kitchen) and sleeping bags were provided by nearby parishioners.

The 1960s were the heyday of adult service and social clubs and St. Raymond was no exception. The St. Raymond Woman's Club was still very active, both socializing and fundraising. They raised funds for automobiles for the nuns, a new altar for the Church, cassocks and surplices for the altar boys, vestments for the priests and a new crown for the Church sanctuary. They also had several standing committees.

The St. Aloysius Guild Committee was made up of the mothers of the altar boys. They were responsible for the pressing and mending of the cassocks and the laundering of collars and gloves. Each altar boy mother was responsible for the laundering of her own son's surplice.

The Good Literature Committee was still monitoring area stores for objectionable literature. The Pamphlets Committee stocked the rack in the Church vestibule with pamphlets on religious and social problems and with copies of both Our Sunday Visitor and Catholic Digest.

Men could join either the Holy Name Society or the St. Vincent De Paul Society, or both. The Holy Name Society boasted over 300 men in 1966. Begun as the Catholic Men's Club in 1949, by this time it offered bowling and golf leagues, dances, smokers and social events. It also sponsored Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts and Explorer Scouts within the parish.

On the other hand, the St. Vincent de Paul Society, which Ben Trapani was instrumental in getting started at St. Raymond, was a club totally involved in service. They worked with the pastor to care for the needy of the parish and members also acted as substitute fathers to the orphan boys at nearby Maryville.

Couples had the Christian Family Movement which, by 1966, had become more of a couples support group than a social service organization, as it was in the early 1950s. Its stated purpose was to "find Christian solutions to everyday problems and promote happier family life."

Single Catholics over 21 from St. Raymond and surrounding parishes in Des Plaines, Prospect Heights, Arlington Heights and Elk Grove enjoyed the Tarragon Club which provided both religious and social functions for its members.

For young people there was the Teen Club which promoted "wholesome" recreation for high school boys and girls in both public and private high schools and there were Scout groups – lots of Scout groups. Bill White and Kenneth Cherwin founded Boy Scout Troop 155 which claimed a membership of 57 boys in 1966. Two Cub Scout Packs, 55 and 133, claimed 63 and 61 boys, respectively. For the girls, there was Campfire which had over 200 members affiliated

Ministry for Our Homebound Parishioners

Are you aware that any parishioner who is recuperating following an accident, illness, or surgery is welcome to receive the Eucharist at home? If you or a loved one is homebound and would like a visit from a Minister of Care, please contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143 or email Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org to make arrangements.

We are happy to bring St. Raymond to you!

Patients at Northwest Community Hospital

In late October we received word from the Spiritual Care Services Department at Northwest Community Hospital that they will no longer send the daily patient census to the Ministry of Care Coordinators at the parishes and other churches. Up to this time, Sr. Val received a confidential listing of St. Raymond parishioners at NCH, enabling us to offer the pastoral care that we want to provide for our parishioners experiencing illness requiring hospital care. Due to this change in policy, there is no way to know if any of our parishioners are at NCH. Therefore, if a loved one has been hospitalized at NCH, we would deeply appreciate a call or email with this information. This is also true for patients at Lutheran General, Alexian Brothers, and Resurrection Hospitals. Please contact Sr. Val at 847-253-8600 x 143 or Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org when a loved one is hospitalized so that we can continue to provide pastoral care during a time of illness. Thank you.

Domestic violence is a pattern of behavior. It is used to exert power and control over another person. It is found in the context of a dating, family or household relationship.

Questions to ask:

- Does your partner isolate you from family and friends?
- Are you being physically, psychologically, economically or sexually abused?
- Is your partner attempting to destroy your self-esteem and self-confidence?

Domestic violence victims often report:

"I didn't know it was abuse."
"I thought I could fix it."
"I didn't tell anyone."

Pray for those on the front lines. Heavenly Father, we pray for the people of this nation and every nation that we might work to bring liberty, justice and peace to all. We ask that you care for the men and women who serve our country in all ways, that they might know of our prayers and be blessed and protected through your ever loving presence. Amen.

Please visit st-raymond.org/bulletin for the full listing of prayer intentions for our front line workers of the parish and family and friends of the parish.
