Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

As we approach the national election this November, I want to encourage all of you to take seriously our responsibility as Catholic Christians to participate in our voting process. No matter your political views, we are called to be respectful of the legitimate political processes of our society and to witness to Christ as informed citizens.

It is not the role of the clergy to advise people how to vote. Voting is a personal decision that should be made prayerfully. Any vote must be cast based on a properly formed conscience, which requires a sincere effort to think through the values that are at stake in our decisions.

In order to help with this process, the following are some highlights from the document Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship from the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Let us make the prayer of the bishops our own as we prepare to participate in the upcoming election on Tuesday, November 3, 2020.

Merciful Father,
Thank you for inviting each of us to join in your work
of building the kingdom of love, justice, and peace.

Draw us close to you in prayer
as we discern your call in our families and communities.
Send us forth to encounter all whom you love:
those not yet born, those in poverty, those in need of welcome.

Inspire us to respond to the call to faithful citizenship, during election season and beyond.
Help us to imitate your charity and compassion and to serve as models of loving dialogue.

Teach us to treat others with respect, even when we disagree,
and seek to share your love and mercy.

We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen

Peace Be With You,

Fr. Scott Hebden, Pastor

HIGHLIGHTS FROM UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF CATHOLIC BISHOPS, FORMING CONSCIENCES FOR FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP

The central value in all moral decisions is the dignity of the human person.

What faith teaches about the dignity of the human person, about the sacredness of every human life, and about humanity's strengths and weaknesses helps us see more clearly the same truths that also come to us through the gift of human reason. At the center of these truths is respect for the dignity of every person. This is the core of Catholic moral and social teaching. Because we are people of both faith and reason, it is appropriate and necessary for us to bring this essential truth about human life and dignity to the public square. We are called to practice Christ's commandment to "love one another" (John 13:34). We are also called to promote the well-being of all, to share our blessings with those most in need, to defend marriage, and to protect the lives and dignity of all, especially the weak, the vulnerable, the voiceless. (10)

Catholic Christians are called to participate in the political life of their nation and community.

The Catholic call to faithful citizenship affirms the importance of political participation and insists that public service is a worthy vocation. As citizens, we should be guided more by our moral convictions than by our attachment to a political party or interest group. When necessary, our participation should help transform the party to which we belong; we should not let the party transform us in such a way that we neglect or deny fundamental moral truths or approve intrinsically evil acts. We are called to bring together our principles and our political choices, our values and our votes, to help build a civilization of truth and love. (14)

Pope Benedict XVI, in his reflection on the Eucharist as "the sacrament of charity," challenged all of us to adopt what he calls "a Eucharistic form of life." This means that the redeeming love we encounter in the Eucharist should shape our thoughts, our words, and our decisions, including those that pertain to the social order....Worship pleasing to God can never be a purely private matter, without consequences for our relationships with others: it demands a public witness to our faith. (38)

Voting in good conscience means making every effort to avoid supporting moral evil.

Catholics often face difficult choices about how to vote. This is why it is so important to vote according to a well-formed conscience that perceives the proper relationship among moral goods. A Catholic cannot vote for a candidate who favors a policy promoting an intrinsically evil act, such as abortion, euthanasia, assisted suicide, deliberately subjecting workers or the poor to subhuman living conditions, redefining marriage in ways that violate its essential meaning, or racist behavior, if the voter's intent is to support that position. (34)

Voters need to keep all moral issues in balance when making a decision, not just focus on one issue at the expense of others.

A voter should not use a candidate's opposition to an intrinsic evil to justify indifference or inattentiveness to other important moral issues involving human life and dignity. (34)

Each voter should consider which candidate will support the Christian moral vision in the widest possible way. This may involve a choice between voting for a candidate who supports a particular issue and a candidate who will support the greater moral good.

The right to life implies and is linked to other human rights - to the basic goods that every human person needs to live and thrive. All the life issues are connected, for erosion of respect for the life of any individual or group in society necessarily diminishes respect for all life. The moral imperative to respond to the needs of our neighbors—basic needs such as food, shelter, health care, education, and meaningful work—is universally binding on our consciences and may be legitimately fulfilled by a variety of means. Catholics must seek the best ways to respond to these needs. (25)

There may be times when a Catholic who rejects a candidate's unacceptable position even on policies promoting an intrinsically evil act may reasonably decide to vote for that candidate for other morally grave reasons. Voting in this way would be permissible only for truly grave moral reasons, not to advance narrow interests or partisan preferences. (35)

Below is our list of the students receiving their First Holy Communion this Fall. We are so proud of each of them! They have been preparing for this sacred Sacrament for over two-years.

Let us join together these next two weeks, and lift up these First Communicants with our prayers. May they continue their Catholic formation with their families, so that they will continue to learn about God and their faith. May they continue to feel the presence of Jesus as they receive His Body and Blood.

What is Life Teen?

Life Teen is a dynamic movement that seeks to lead teens closer to Christ through fellowship, learning, community and prayer. It helps guide teens in discovering their mission as followers of Christ

Primary Focus

- Build Community to help teens feel connected to the church at both the small and large group level
- Provide relevant and engaging teachings on the Catholic faith to give teens a place to learn and ask questions about the faith.
- Lead teens through prayer, discussion and in-depth teaching of our faith

What does a session look like?

- Gather: Night begins with an engaging activity/ game
- Proclaim: Dive into an interactive 15-minute Catholic teaching
- Break: split into small group for group-lead discussion. Groups typically remains consistent throughout the year
- Send: Lead teens in different experiences of prayer to encounter Jesus

Join us for our Fall series "Belong"

Many factors cause teens to experience the pain of isolation and loneliness to a greater degree today and a multitude of solutions often leave them feeling even more alone. Belong series addresses the importance of moving from isolation to solitude as well as our need for acceptance and community, which can be found and fostered in the Catholic Church.

What is a series?

A series is a grouping of 4 nights where the messages are all connected under a common theme. This approach allows for deeper content/discussions into topics over simply brushing over the surface. They are relevant to teen's life in both practical and spiritual way.

How do small groups work?

Small groups provide the teens with an opportunity to discuss the night's topic in a less intimidating-sized group. We know that a large group experience can be too daunting for some teens to feel comfortable opening up. Teens will get placed in a small group at the beginning of the year, and they will traditionally remain in the same small group with the same leaders throughout the year.

Teens who were part of Branches last year will have the option to remain in their small group or may choose to be part of a new small group.

Summer Supper

Thank you so much to all who made a donation to St. Mark PADS Site. Whether it was monetary, food, or your time, all were much appreciated. St. Mark PADS Site and Summer Supper program have served over 2,600 meals since March! It is amazing! This could not have been done without all of the help and support we received from many of you.

Journeys The Road Home has received a grant from FEMA. This will enable them to continue the hotel stay for about 90 people through December. This does not cover their meals though. We will let you know in the coming weeks how you can help. Thanks for all that you have done for those less fortunate. God Bless You and stay well.

The Faith Community of St Raymond de Penafort purchased the 24 lots for $100,000 on August 7, 1961 and nine days later they turned around and relinquished their claim to the property, transferring it to St. Raymond. A massive parking lot with capacity for 500 cars was built there shortly thereafter.

Father O'Brien now had his new church, huge parking lot, larger school, convent for the nuns and even a hall for meetings (the little old church), but he was still troubled by having two families owning property and residing on it within "his" block.

Andrew and Mary Byrne and their eight children helped him out by moving to Elm Grove, WI in November, 1962 and selling their home at 313 S. I-Oka Avenue to St. Raymond. Father O'Brien quickly moved in. He had never been particularly fond of the rectory at 218 S. I-Oka Avenue, according to Nell Steinmiller, so he moved into the Byrnes' old house, leaving his assistants, Frs. Joseph Doyle and Daniel Coughlin, in the old rectory.

Eventually he probably would have asked the Steinmillers to move so that the church could have the whole block but he became ill and went into Resurrection Hospital in April, 1963 for surgery. He died on the operating table on April 27, 1963, a few months short of his 62nd birthday, leaving behind a strong, healthy parish which had little left on its construction agenda. Father O'Brien had truly built something wonderful out of nothing.

Father O'Brien used lots of imagination and creative thinking, as well as hard work, to create the parish of St. Raymond from scratch. By the time he died on April 27, 1963, the parish he had created was already well established and quite healthy.

Albert Cardinal Meyer presided over the dedication Mass for the new church on April 29, 1962.

Pages from the illustrated history by Jean Powley Murphy

Father Coggins' ingenious connection of three formerly private homes to make a large and very beautiful rectory for the pastor and priests was admired by all, including the Archdiocesan officials who had put a moratorium on construction of new rectories.

Interested In Becoming Catholic?

One of the great gifts we've been given is the opportunity to BE church together! At St. Raymond's we do that in so many ways: through our liturgies, formation and education programs, outreach programs and our socializing and hospitality. We continually strive to create an atmosphere where God's active presence will be discovered among us.

And so we always try to welcome new members -- especially those who might be searching for something more. Sometimes all that is needed is a gentle invitation -- a little encouragement from someone to do something that we've been thinking about for a long time -- a little encouragement to stop putting something off -- and recognize that perhaps now is the time to take action.

And so we encourage you, our parishioners, to prayerfully consider people you know -- a spouse, friend, relative, co-worker, or neighbor -- and invite them to explore our faith.

The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) is designed for men and women who have never been baptized or who were baptized in another Christian denomination and are considering becoming Catholic. It is also appropriate for baptized Catholics who have received little formal religious education or who have not received the sacraments of Eucharist or Confirmation.

The RCIA is a wonderful process, involving some of our own parishioners who accompany the candidates on their faith journey. Our regular meetings are on Monday evenings beginning in mid-September.

For more information please call or e-mail Deacon David Babczak (847-253-8600, D.Babczak@St-Raymond.org).

Pray for those on the front lines. Heavenly Father, we pray for the people of this nation and every nation that we might work to bring liberty, justice and peace to all. We ask that you care for the men and women who serve our country in all ways, that they might know of our prayers and be blessed and protected through your ever loving presence. Amen.

Please visit st-raymond.org/bulletin for the full listing of prayer intentions for our front line workers of the parish and family and friends of the parish.

Counseling Services are available for those experiencing the loss of a loved one, a relationship, job, and other challenging life situations through our Human Concerns Commission. If you would like to talk with a counselor, please contact Sr. Valerie Kulbacki, Director of Care Ministries, at 847-253-8600 or at Sr.Val@St-Raymond.org.
