Thank You
TO THE ST. RAYMOND
MAINTENANCE TEAM

They have been working extremely hard to keep our school and church campus clean and safe. The team comes early and stays late to follow the COVID cleaning protocols. In addition, they continue to enhance the church and school areas with various projects around campus including: refinishing wood, moving plants/bushes, installing cameras, setting up tents for school mask breaks, and designing wooden pew stanchions, just to name a few. We are very blessed to have such a dedicated team at St. Raymond Parish. If you see any of them please say THANK YOU, we could not be open without them.

The Faith Community of St Raymond de Penafort

with St. Raymond and there was Girl Scouts which claimed 300 parish girls involved in programming.

Father Coggins founded the Parish Youth Council in the fall of 1964 to coordinate all of the parish's youth activities and its members were parents, appointed by the pastor. The Council oversaw the band, athletics for both elementary and high school students and education in the school. It also monitored use of the gymnasium.

Father Coggins was variously described by his former parishioners as everything from "brusque" to "private" to "charming and funny."

"Father Coggins was very concerned about people," recalls Marcella Odmark. "He was a real advocate for women and the woman's club. He even donated all of his books to the school and started the school library."

In fact, Father Coggins was even an author in his own right. He wrote a book about his dog, Boots, and also wrote a small biography of Our Lady of Guadalupe called "The Woman Clothed with the Sun."

His pastoral duties were shared by not only his assistants, Father Daniel Coughlin (1960-1965), Father Donald Fenske (1963-1968), Father John Rochford (1963-1966), Fr. Augustin Pallikunnen (student priest from India - 1963), Father Ronald Kalas (1966-1980), Father Robert Carroll (1967-1972) and Father Kenneth Kiepora (1969 - 1976), but also by a parade of deacons who served in a parish for one year in a sort of internship and then went back to the seminary to be ordained as priests. The three who served under Father Coggins were Steven Tebes (1967-68), Edward Braxton (1969-70) and Michael Kelly (1970-71). The permanent diaconate program was organized in November, 1970.

Failing health finally forced Father Coggins to resign his post as pastor, effective November 1, 1970. Almost blind in his right eye and plagued by nagging back pain which had already forced the removal of two discs, Father Coggins told a local newspaper during the summer of 1970:

"I can't do my share of the duties with the church anymore. I can't get around as I used to and when there is something I can't do, another father in the church has to do it. That's no good."

So he accepted the title Pastor Emeritus of St. Raymond and retired to California to work with the Indians there.

"When I came here seven years ago the first thing I noticed was how friendly everybody was. How everybody said, 'hi' to you on the streets. Not only Catholics and members of St. Raymond's, but everybody," he told the reporter. "That's what I'll miss the most. I'll miss the friendliness."

Pages from the illustrated history by Jean Powley Murphy

Americans, including those at St. Raymond de Peñafort, became much more casual about their clothing – in church, in school and in general – after the issuance of the Vatican II document and the social upheaval of the late 1960s.

Pray for Our Sick As Members of the Parish Faith Community, it is our responsibility to remember both in concrete and spiritual ways those who cannot celebrate with us each week because they are ill. Those who are sick in turn, remember all of us daily in their prayers and in their sufferings. We experience many blessings because of their remembering us. And so ... please remember in your prayers the people listed. *Infant
