Deacon Dave and Monica Babczak

Dave and Monica have been actively involved in parish ministries since becoming parishioners in 1987. In 2012, Dave heeded the call of the Holy Spirit to enter into the Diaconal Studies and was ordained a permanent Deacon in 2016. Deacon Dave coordinates the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and assists couples in marriage preparation. Deacon Dave and Monica are a host couple for our Baptism Ministry. Monica is also a Minister of Care. We are very thankful they continue to share their gifts/talents and faithfully serve St. Raymond Parish.

Honoring our Class of 2021

Over the past couple of weeks, SRS has been honoring our Class of 2021. While their 8th grade experience may not have played out exactly as they dreamed it would, the school community is proud of their resilience and flexibility in making this a great year. We honored the 8th graders by featuring two grads a day on the SRS Facebook page where they shared their favorite memories. The school also surprised the students with personalized lawn signs and a congratulations banner posted in the front of the school. Students enjoyed their last full week with a special lunch and a Mass celebration, hosted by our 7th graders, on Thursday. The student body and teachers offered advice as they prepare to leave us. We look forward to celebrating a recognition prayer service and the graduation Mass next week!

Our sister parish: Providence of God

St. Raymond's sister parish, Providence of God, was officially established in 1900 as the second Lithuanian parish in Chicago. Located at 18th and Union Avenue at the east end of the Pilsen neighborhood, today it is a predominantly Spanish-speaking parish serving Mexican families.

Pilsen has been considered a port-of-entry neighborhood for immigrants for more than 100 years. The Germans and Irish came first. Then came the Poles, Bohemians, Czechs and Lithuanians. Now it is home to the Latinos.

Each of these ethnic groups formed their own parish in the last part of the last century and the early part of this one. In each case, they used their own native languages in them. The Irish founded Sacred Heart Church in 1872. Providence of God was founded by the Lithuanians in 1900. And the Czechs began St. Joseph Slovak Church in 1905.

Providence of God served its Lithuanian founders exclusively for over 50 years. The original parish complex consisted of a combination church and school. That was quickly outgrown and in 1914 a new church was begun. Because of financial difficulties, however, only the lower portion of the structure was completed. It was enough to ease the overcrowding, though, so the former church portion of the combination building was remodeled into classrooms and a convent was constructed nearby. By 1916, 518 children were students at Providence of God School.

Work on the church finally resumed in June, 1926. George Cardinal Mundelein dedicated the Romanesque church with its twin steeples in June, 1927.

The character of Providence of God parishioners began to change in the late 1950s when its neighbor, Sacred Heart Church, was destroyed by fire and the Irish began attending Providence of God. The construction of the Dan Ryan Expressway around the same time then started an exodus of long-time Lithuanian residents away from the neighborhood. The closing of St. Joseph Slovak Church in 1968 added Czechs to the mix at Providence of God and the building of the University of Illinois Circle Campus around that same time drove even more old residents to leave the neighborhood.

All of this combined to open the way for a new migration of people into the area. These new immigrants were Latinos from Mexico and Texas. Today, in fact, Latinos comprise more than 90 percent of the population of Pilsen and Providence of God serves as both a religious and cultural center for them, promoting educational opportunities, employee training programs and redevelopment and rehabilitation projects in the community. Pope John Paul II even delivered a short address on the merits of the Campaign for Human Development at Providence of God during his visit to Chicago in 1979.

Unfortunately, the parish's school is no longer open due to steadily declining enrollment and increasing costs.

St. Raymond's relationship with Providence of God began in 1971 and continues today. A strong bond has been established and parishioners and staff members alike are always looking for additional avenues of interaction. *

*Members of St. Raymond Church shared Mass and a fiesta with the predominantly Mexican members of Providence of God Church in 1975. The relationship between the two churches began in 1971 when Cardinal Cody instituted his "Twinning program" in which he paired affluent suburban parishes with poor inner-city parishes for purpose of fellowship, cultural sharing and financial support.
