CELEBRATING DEACON JOHN LORBACH

CONGRATULATE YOU ON YOUR SILVER JUBILEE

Dear Sisters and Brothers of St. Raymond:

Let us join together to congratulate Deacon John Lorbach on the 25th anniversary of his ordination to the Diaconate. John and Ingrid shared this ministry for many years, and the faithfulness that John has shown in his love and care for his family has overflowed into service for this community.

It is impossible to estimate the number of lives that Deacon John has touched through 25 years of service at St. Raymond. Throughout his ministry, Deacon John has represented authentic gospel hospitality as he has accompanied many families, both at St. Raymond and throughout the Northwestern suburbs, in celebrating baptisms, weddings and funerals. He has done this in a spirit that has restored the confidence of many in the mercy of God and the ministry of the Church. Deacon John served as Director of Liturgy at St. Raymond for 19 years, helping to develop the vibrant liturgy that has attracted people to our community.

In his work with the Interfaith Union School and the Inter-Religious Council of Mount Prospect, Deacon John has represented the radical openness to journey with all those who seek God called for by the Second Vatican Council. In his work with the Backpack Ministry, Deacon John has put into action the particular call of deacons to care for those in need.

I have found Deacon John to be a wise and trusted advisor during my time as pastor of St. Raymond. I have come to know him as a true servant of the mission of Jesus Christ. We hope to have a proper celebration of this important anniversary when we are more free to gather in person. As we anticipate that day, let us offer a prayer of thanks to God for Deacon John and ask the Lord to bless him with many more years of ministry to come.

Peace Be With You,

Fr Scott

Below is our list of the students receiving their First Holy Communion this weekend. We are so proud of each of them! They have been preparing for this sacred Sacrament for over two-years.

Let us join together and lift up these First Communicants with our prayers as they grow in their Catholic faith with their families. May they continue to feel the presence of Jesus as they receive His Body and Blood.

Celebrating our First Communicants

Over the past few months, the second graders have been preparing to receive the Sacrament of First Holy Communion. During this time, they participated in various activities, which included recreating the Last Supper and making beautiful banners with their families to symbolize the Eucharist. The second graders learned that by receiving their First Holy Communion, they are living out their faith as children of God. They also learned that Eucharist means "thanksgiving" and that we should always be thankful for all the blessings God has given us. This was a very blessed time for all second graders, and we are very proud of their hard work and dedication.

Proud students of Mrs. Kosiba's class

St Emily's Respect Life Family Rosary
Wednesday, May 5, 7:00 p.m.

The month of May is dedicated to Our Blessed Mother and offers a wonderful opportunity for our first "Respect Life Family Rosary."

Many people are working extremely hard to promote the dignity of human life from conception to natural death. Prayer is especially important in this effort and the Rosary is a most beautiful form of prayer especially when the voices of many are lifted to Our Blessed Mother.

Our objective is a simple one – to promote and pray for the dignity of human life and to bring families closer to Mary by praying the Rosary in a warm and family-welcoming environment. We are planning an evening of prayer and song as we dedicate the Rosary in respect for all life – from conception to natural death.

Good and gracious God, may those suffering in body or spirit rest in your abiding presence relaxing every tension, releasing every care and anxiety, and receiving Your healing life into every part of their being. In times of pain may they turn to You for strength; in times of loneliness may they feel your loving nearness; and in times of doubt may your love flow through them in restoration and peace. Amen.

The Faith Community of St Raymond de Peñafort

"I particularly remember Barb Schrage and her husband, who was a guitarist, leading the 'love' round in church," Kirkwood continues. "They would divide the church into four parts and do a round of: Love, love, love, love; People now, hear his call; Love your neighbor as yourself; For God loves us all."

Eventually, the choir split into a traditional choir and a contemporary choir – which accompanied the guitars. John King was the director at the time, followed by Sister Bernadette Luecker.

Changes were also occurring in the school.

In April, 1971 St. Raymond School was chosen to be one of 30 Archdiocesan schools (out of a pool of 413 schools) to experiment with a new type of education called "Individually Guided Education" or IGE. The only other schools in the area chosen were St. Stephen in Des Plaines and St. Thomas of Villanova in Palatine.

Designed by the Charles F. Kettering Foundation's Institute for the Development of Educational Activities, IGE involved individual assessment of each student's needs, followed by a prescriptive educational program to meet them. From that point on, each child was given a specific objective to work on, either on their own or in a group, and then tested to assure mastery of the concept before moving on.

It was a huge change for the school, faculty and parents.

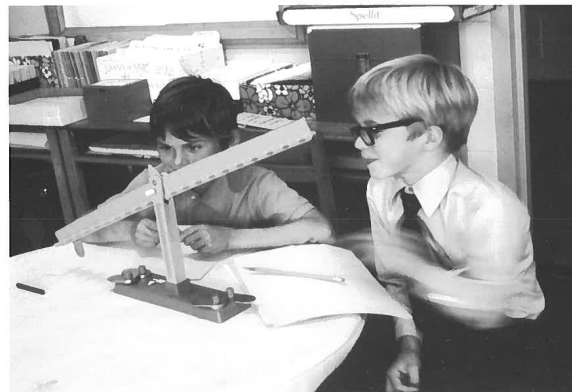

"People who are just getting used to seeing nuns in schools without the old black habits," wrote a Chicago Today newspaper reporter in November, 1971, "now have to get used to seeing children sprawled on the floor or chattering in small groups as they work on their 'objectives'."

And no grades were issued in the subjects where IGE was used – specifically, math. Parent-teacher conferences were held and detailed summary sheets were given out explaining where improvement was needed and where progress was satisfactory.

It was hypothesized in The New World

The traditional choir donned their robes to sing for the jubilee liturgy in 1974.

Under the IGE (Individually Guided Education) program during the early 1970s children worked at their own speed, alone, in pairs or in small groups. Educators hoped that it would produce more independent learners.

Pages from the illustrated history by Jean Powley Murphy in November, 1971 that using IGE would "produce students who enjoy school; progress at their own rate; are more independent learners; draw upon a variety of learning experiences; know how to find facts and use them; understand concepts, not just how to memorize; and who are helped by teachers filled with greater enthusiasm for their work."

Sisters Joan Bransfield and Judy Herrmann were the principals during this experiment, which went on through much of the 1970s.

Only the best parts of the system were kept by Fran Harwas when she became principal in 1976. Music and art teacher Marguerite King spearheaded efforts at integrated learning. Each year a different subject was chosen and many areas of that subject investigated by all of the classes. One year had a Native American theme and it culminated in a huge Pow Wow in the courtyard. In 1976 the school celebrated the nation's Bicentennial with a parade down the neighboring streets in authentic costumes. Other themes included the circus, the Renaissance and the Olympics.

"We encouraged the children to put themselves into a different time and/or place and learn everything they could about it – right down to the foods and the money," King explains.

Kindergarten was added to the school in 1975. Dressing up for a Thanksgiving presentation has long been part of the kindergarten experience at St. Raymond.

Teacher Wayne Kendall led the school's patriotic parade around the neighborhood, culminating their studies in honor of the country's Bicentennial in 1976.
