FOLLOWING JESUS TO THE MARGINS

How do our faith and faith leaders guide our hearts towards the oppressed?

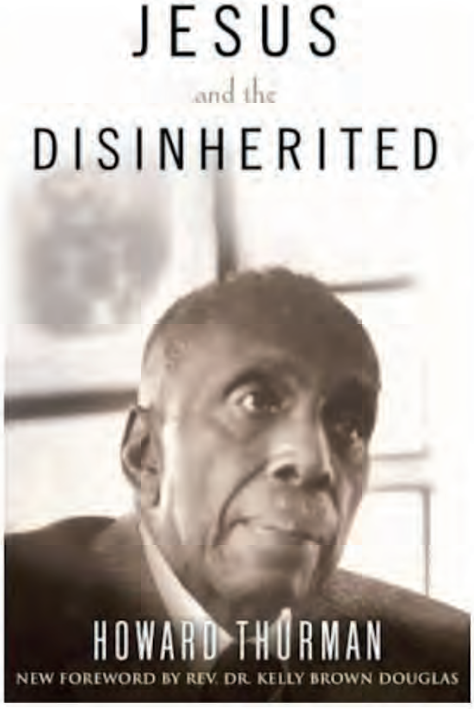

Continue the conversation about Jesus' works with the marginalized on

Monday
November 30th
7 to 8:30 pm
in the St. Raymond Community Room

Starting this month, we will dive into a chapter at a time into Howard Thurman's Jesus and the Disinherited. This work provides a theological and psychological roadmap for understanding the message of Jesus through the eyes of the oppressed

You can purchase the book or join our mailing list to have a scan of the Preface and Chapter 1 emailed to you.

Crunched for time? Even if you do not get a moment to read, join us to discuss the ideas and leave with new ideas and new questions about your faith and yourself!

HOSTED BY:
RACIAL JUSTICE LEARNING GROUP

Learning to actively promote racial tolerance, overcome prejudices, and resist discrimination is a re-education process for many. Becoming aware of where we can grow in our call to love one another as God loves us can help God heal and change us. With God, we can open our hearts to hearing and heeding this call.
